

DISCOVER BIBLE SCHOOLS

Options for you and your church.

The Discover Bible Schools programme is operated by the Adventist Discovery Centre. It is a scheme designed to assist the members or local congregation to make use of ADC correspondence lessons in local evangelistic witness. It is a co-operative ministry in which the ADC links hands with local people to achieve mutual goals.

The DBS programme is available in two operational schemes:

1). DBS 60 (Team)

This option is for the church that wishes to make use of our Bible lessons with their own contacts. The church works through a DBS Sponsor who liaises between the church and the ADC.

How It Works:

We supply lessons to the Sponsor on a 'drip feed' basis as students' progress through their chosen courses. Lessons are supplied free of charge in return for student data. Lessons are marked, records maintained and certificates issued by the ADC.

2). DBS 100 (Autonomous)

This is a scheme by which a local church may run a school autonomously. Supplies of lessons and advertising cards may be purchased from the ADC at FULL cost. All marking, maintenance of records and issuing of certificates is the local responsibility.

In each case above:

The ADC requires a formal registration approved by the Church Board and/or pastor. All DBS programmes are part of the ministry of the ADC and should not be perceived as a competitor to the regular ADC Correspondence method.

For further information:

The contact person at the ADC for all DBS ministry is Mrs Jean Menkens. You may contact her by e-mail on jmenkens@adventist.org.uk or in writing or by phone 01923 665553
